Master's Message

Brethren,

Spring is in the air! We are thinking about getting out of the confines of home, being outside and starting the yearly projects, getting the lawn furniture out and enjoying the warmth of the sun on our faces. In the spirit of brotherly love and harmony, let us recommit ourselves to living out the values of Freemasonry in our daily lives. The teachings of our craft remind us to be just, upright, and diligent in all our endeavors. As we navigate through the challenges and triumphs of life, let the light of Masonry guide us. Remember, every small act of kindness and every moment of support we offer to each other strengthens the fabric of our lodge and our community. Participating in lodge can reignite that light from within! Bring that brilliance back to our own Masonic lights!

God Bless.

With fraternal care and respect,
Sam Harris, Worshipful Master
